NOMINATIONS FOR THE IBEA AWARDS

Illinois has some of the finest business education professionals in the nation. These professionals have made contributions to business education and should be nominated for awards recognizing their contributions. Please consider nominating those IBEA members who have contributed so much to business education and their students.

- Information will be gathered and forms may be completed by the nominator, or the nominee. An exception to this is the Professional Recognition Award which can be self-nominated.
- All information will be sent electronically via email to Awards Chair. Hardcopy of forms are no longer required or needed.
- Attendance at the fall conference by the recipient of any award is strongly encouraged.
- Credentials of candidates not receiving a current year award shall be retained for consideration for the following year. Nominees must continue to meet eligibility criteria.

Professional Recognition

(may be self-nominated)

The Illinois Business Education Association board knows that our membership includes many excellent educators who have contributed greatly to their classroom, to their schools, to their professions, and to their communities. The awarding of the Professional Recognition Award to deserving recipients gives IBEA an opportunity to recognize its members for their many achievements and contributions throughout their professional lives.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Business educators, at all levels of instruction, who have taught a minimum of 15 years
- Must have a minimum of 10 years membership in the Illinois Business Education Association
- Retired teachers are also eligible and are encouraged to apply

EVALUATION PROCESS:

Every completed application which is received prior to the deadline and adheres to the application guidelines will be read and evaluated by the Awards Selection Committee. The following three areas will be evaluated:

- Professional Activities
- Services to the Business Education Profession
- Student-Centered Activities

All winners will be included in a slide show during the conference. Please send a digital picture of nominee to ibea@ibea.org in case they are selected for the award. Attendance at the fall conference by the recipient is strongly encouraged.

Your responses should be as complete--but as brief--as possible. The suggested topics in each area are quite comprehensive, and we realize that not all areas will apply nor can all be completed for every nominee. We are asking for an honest assessment of the nominee and to give credit for what they have achieved. You may include one supplemental page to provide additional data which you believe has not been addressed in the three areas.

- A. Professional Activities: Please provide information pertaining to nominee teaching experiences and current memberships in business education related organizations and other educational or specialty/ related organizations. Please include the number of years they have taught and been a member of IBEA. Include offices held in local, state, regional, or national business education organizations; other kinds of service to these organizations; and conferences and conventions attended.
- B. Service to the Business Education Profession: List presentations made at professional meetings and workshops/seminars conducted. Provide information about articles published in professional journals and textbooks authored, co-authored, or reviewed. Indicate service to their school, such as, a committee member, supervisor of a student teacher, department chair or program coordinator, mentor teacher to a new or part-time faculty staff member, and other professional service activities.
- C. Student-Centered Activities: List their achievements with student-centered activities. Please provide information about sponsorship or advisement of any student organizations, advisement to student organization officers other than at the local level, and contests they have chaired, conducted, or judged.
