

2018-2019 EIBEA Teacher of the Year Award Winner

Marcy Satterwhite, Lake Land College

Nomination Letter:

Marcy has devoted countless hours to EIBEA and IBEA during her 20+ years in Business Education. She has served as EIBEA President since 2013. In her role as President, she works hard to organize meetings and put together meaningful professional development activities for our chapter, including trips to Patterson Technologies and Tuscan Hills Winery in Effingham and North American Lighting in Paris.

She is always striving to stay current in her area, graphic design, as well as business education in general. Marcy is very supportive of high school business education, recognizing how important getting a head start in high school is to the future of business education.

Marcy has been a member of IBEA since 1995, serving as President for the 2009-2010 academic year. In addition to being in charge of the Fall Conference in 2008, she has worked at the conference in some capacity every year. She is also one of the conference's biggest promoters.

Marcy has high standards for herself and for her students. As an instructor, she demands quality work and a good work ethic. As an advisor, she makes sure to talk things over with her students to ensure they are not just registering for the right classes for the upcoming term but that they have a detailed plan to complete their degree or certificate.

Nominated by: Cindy Phipps, Lake Land College