Lake Land College Business & Computer Contest Updates:

This Year's Lake Land College Business & Computer Contest will be:
Friday April 27, 2007

Mark your calendars now and be looking for your team of 7 business and computer students to bring to the contest. Contest areas include: Accounting, CAD, Computer Repair, General Business & Current Events, Desktop Publishing, Excel, Internet Search, Keyboarding (timings & formatting), Word and Web Page Design concepts and hands on HTML web page creation.

Contest Registration and Lunch is provided FREE of charge by the LLC Business Division. Talk to your Tech Prep coordinator about possible sources of funds for transportation to and from Lake Land College.

This is a great opportunity for your student's to show what they can do. We will be sending out a letter to all business teacher's in the area in February 2007 with more details. You can check out the website for pictures of last year's contest at: http://webclass.lakeland.cc.il.us/cis/contest

We Hope to See YOU ALL at This Year's Contest!
